Bonfire 2013

Outdoor activities create an aura of their own. On Saturday 2nd February 2013, in the spacious premises of Bahria Town School the Annual Bonfire was held. Stalls of different eatables were put up to entertain the visitors. Horse riding was a major attraction for the young students. After the sunset when the fire was lit festivity could be seen in the air. Swings rides and many interesting games kept the students involved and winners were given gifts. The Management, teachers and senior students worked enthusiastically to put up a great show. Students' live performances and music made the environment more lively and the spectators appreciated their efforts.

UP COMING EVENTS

23rd Feb 2013: Farewell X M
 11th Feb 2013: Quiz Competition
 14th March 2013: Annual Sports Day (Juniors)

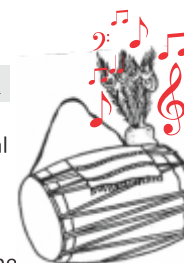

Pre-school Field Trip

As part of practical learning, pupils of Prep Class went for a field trip to visit an under construction house. This trip was integrated with their social sciences. They learnt about the houses and the material used. This made them familiar with the different kinds of building materials. Children also observed concrete plant where they learned what concrete is composed of. They also visited a brick furnace to see how and what bricks are made of. They saw different types of houses. Clay houses were the centre of attraction for the children. It was a very learning and fun filled experience for them as visual learning is always an effective tool for increasing their exposure and expanding the students' knowledge.

Dholki Celebration

Besides the professional environment of Bahria Town School the faculty members work together as a family and share all the happiness and sad moments to strengthen their bonding. In the month of January four of the teachers of Pre School got engaged. The faculty members arranged a party for them after school as a gesture of goodwill and to wish them well for their future lives. May God bless their lives with happiness and prosperity.

Winter Parade

Out of four seasons, winter is the most favourite season as there are different things to enjoy. Keeping this in view Bahria Town School arranged a winter parade for the students of Class Prep and Montessori. Students enjoyed the winter fruits and the teachers of Prep made them familiar with the tastes and nutritional value of these fruits. Montessori students enjoyed dry fruits under the dazzling sunlight. It was a delightful and informative experience for the students which left a lasting effect on their minds.

Jelly activity

Learning with fun has always been kept in mind while planning activities and curriculum for Pre-school students. These activities make the students healthy and they feel more energetic. These activities are integrated with their syllabus to enhance their knowledge and improve their understanding. Teachers of Nursery Classes took their students to the school kitchen which excited the students and they worked there as 'baby chefs.' The most enjoyable thing was that they learnt the vocabulary words by making jelly and forming it in different shapes.

Annual Prize giving and Senior Sports Day will be held in March after the Matric exams are over
