Richard Bach

Every passing out batch is honoured with a formal farewell party. The farewell party for X M was scheduled for 23rd Feb. 2013. To make it more memorable this time around, the party was arranged at the Bahria Grand Hotel which created a more sophisticated ambience.

Students were elegantly dressed and the school auditorium was very beautifully decorated. Songs, dances, students titles, teachers parodies and a farewell speech were the main highlights of the event. Teachers and students jointly worked really hard and made it a memorable event. The slideshow made them feel nostalgic and many students were unable to control their emotions and cried their hearts out.
